

Bill O'Neill

Consultant CIO

Bill O' Neill has over 30 years' experience as a Chief Investment Officer, economist and strategist with some of the world's leading investment firms. Bill held the role as the CIO for Merrill Lynch Wealth Management in London and was Head of the UK Investment Office for UBS Wealth Management between 2013 to 2016 where he was responsible for the management of £10 billion of funds under management. He worked with Gary Dugan at JP Morgan where they were responsible for managing £15 billion and also worked with Gary at Barclays Wealth as a senior strategist.

Prior to these roles he worked at James Capel Australia and HSBC Investment Bank. Currently, in addition to supporting The Global CIO Office as Consultant CIO, Bill heads the Falco Private Office Investment Committee in the UK and has overall responsibility for the company's investment processes and asset allocation strategy.

Bill has an M.A Degree in Economics from the University College Dublin and an M.Sc. in Econometrics and Quantitative Economics from Birkbeck College, University of London.